DESCRIPTION

The Crown Inn is located in a busy suburb of Briton Ferry on the outskirts of Port Talbot just off the M4. Neath is a market town and community situated in the Neath Port Talbot County Borough. The town has a population of circa 50,658. Historically in Glamorgan, the town is located on the River Neath, seven miles east-northeast of Swansea. The pub is surrounded by residential housing and a small number of independent retail outlets.

Pub Layout

The pub sits just off the main road and has a small car park to the front of the pub. There is a large garden to the rear of the pub which attracts a lot of customers during the summer months. There is one large lounge to the left and then further to the left is a smaller pool room which currently houses the pool table. To the right hand side as you enter and in front of the bar is another smaller lounge area. There is a balance of mixed and loose seating breaking up the large lounge into smaller cosier areas.

TRADING STYLE

The pub trades as a drinks focused business and the bar has a good array of products however a new licensee may wish to upgrade the offering and explore a stronger range of products including premium gins and beers. Weekly entertainment consists of a quiz night and live music at the weekend which is popular with locals. The kitchen is currently not being used however there is potential to introduce a small food offer.

BDM VISION

The goal for this pub is to entice a licensee equipped with a well-planned marketing strategy to maximize its potential. This involves leveraging the kitchen for a diverse food menu and capitalizing on the expansive rear garden by hosting a variety of events and functions during the summer season. These events could include music performances, beer festivals, gin tastings, and more.
