Great Harwood itself is a vibrant community, offering a bustling weekly market alongside a popular monthly farmers' market. Ideally positioned on the edge of the town centre, The Park Hotel benefits from excellent connectivity, sitting on a busy main road that links the A680 directly to the M65 motorway.

Pub Layout

As you approach the pub, you are welcomed by a sun-drenched front seating area, thoughtfully arranged to create an inviting setting. Stepping through the doors into the restaurant, the bar greets you directly ahead, with comfortable seating to the left that leads seamlessly to the large catering kitchen. To the right, a walkway opens to a cosy secondary bar area, ideal for enjoying televised sports, with convenient access to the ladies' and gents' toilets. Outside, there is a spacious car park accommodating up to 20 vehicles. Inside, the pub is decorated to an exceptional standard, with a harmonious blend of painted, papered, tiled, and exposed brick feature walls, complemented by a mix of wooden and tiled flooring. Large front-facing windows flood the space with natural light, while a welcoming log burner adds to the warm and inviting atmosphere. The restaurant area balances low-level loose tables and chairs with bench seating and soft furnishings, creating a versatile and comfortable environment. The open-view kitchen concept seamlessly integrates with the contemporary décor, combining style and functionality.

TRADING STYLE

Currently, trade at The Park is evenly split, with food sales peaking during weekends and public holidays. The pub prides itself on its excellent home-cooked, traditional pub offer, which forms the cornerstone of its food trade. Alongside this, The Park enjoys a strong wet trade, offering premium drinks and live televised sports that keep a loyal core of regulars. This combination of quality food, drinks, and community-focused entertainment firmly establishes The Park as a central and cherished hub within the local area.
