DESCRIPTION

Barningham is a beautiful West Suffolk village with a population of 996 (2021 Census Data), located approximately 11 miles north-east of Bury St Edmunds and 8 miles south-west of Thetford. The village has a reasonable range of facilities, including a shop, post office, primary school and leisure facilities. Barningham has good vehicular access to the main A143 (Suffolk Coast) and A1066 (Diss) via the B1111. The Royal George is a Grade II Listed, characterful, thatched building in centre of the village with many exposed beams & huge inglenook fireplace. The core of the building dates from the 15th century, with several subsequent extensions & alterations.

Pub Layout

Traditionally decorated throughout, the main bar has approximately 26 covers and leads conveniently into the sports bar area with separate servery. The restaurant area extends over two spaces with wooden partition beams for around 50 covers and is serviced by the good sized trade kitchen. There is a ground floor beer cellar and well kept ladies and gents facilities. Externally there are both front and rear gardens, which are laid to grass and host approximately 60 covers and a large car park for approximately 15 cars as well as a few sheds, handy for extra storage.

TRADING STYLE

The Royal George is a traditional pretty village pub with a daily food offer and a good mix of standard and premium drinks offers available. The garden is a big draw for customers in the summer months and the separate drinking areas offer a variety of seating for the diverse clientele.

BDM VISION

Admiral Taverns are looking for an enthusiastic and energetic individual or couple to take on the Royal George and really drive the business forward. They will need to re-establish the pub as the heart of the community and also entice those from surrounding villages by having a great reputation for good quality food, regular opening hours and fantastic customer service.

As this pub is also available to purchase, we are initially looking for a short term licensee for this site, however, should they potentially wish to stay longer term, this may be available for further discussion.
