DESCRIPTION

Tucked away just off Dudley high street, The Shrewsbury Arms beckons with its irresistible charm. Dudley, a lively market town in the West Midlands. Nestled 5.5 miles southeast of Wolverhampton and a mere 8 miles northwest of Birmingham. Dudley wears its crown proudly as the Black Country's capital.

Pub Layout

The interior of The Shrewsbury Arms offers a seamless, unified experience. Greeting patrons upon entry is a well-appointed bar to the left. To the right, a blend of fixed and flexible seating, accompanied by three strategically placed televisions and an engaging dartboard. Stepping further in reveals an outdoor patio area that accommodates around 12 seats, complete with two additional television screens broadcasting both Sky and BT.

TRADING STYLE

The Shrewsbury Arms confidently thrives as a wet-lead establishment, positioned just a stone's throw away from Dudley's bustling high street. Great pricing and attractive offers this pub is firmly established in its community and extends a welcoming embrace to both loyal patrons and passers-by. The love for televised sports adds to the vibrant appeal.
