Role Purpose

Admiral Taverns' main income and profit stream comes from the sale of drinks to its estate of tenanted and leased pubs. The Telesales team is pivotal in maintaining and developing this income stream and to maximise the profit derived from it. Sales Development Consultants communicate with licensees weekly and build thriving working relationships with them to help achieve great sales whilst maintaining an excellent standard of customer service.

Key Tasks & Responsibilities

Specific tasks will include but not be limited to;

- To call and maintain a diary of approx. 150 pubs per week and process their weekly drinks orders.
- To sell key brands into our pubs to ensure each of our licensees has the best product range available for their customers.
- The role includes handling incoming calls from our licensees, members of our field teams, our distribution company (currently KNLD) and other industry related businesses.
- Processing daily distribution reports such as; Failed at Pick, POD, EDI Rejections.
- Essential Telesales duties including nil order process, allocating and logging free of charge stock, processing transfer orders, reporting faulty stock (Tag Returns) etc.
- Flexibility to cover other department tasks or assist as required

Person Specification

- Positive in all situations, even under the most testing circumstances.
- Great time keeping.
- An effective communicator who has the respect of their colleagues.
- Proactive – looking at opportunities to support in advance.
- Polite and confident telephone manner. Treating others as you would wish to be treated.
- Willing to go the extra mile for customers, colleagues and their team.
- Resourceful – having a 'can do' attitude to think around problems to find a solution.
- Tenacious – to see things through to completion.
- Must have experience using Excel.
